

I'll Take The Old Highway

Intro

VS1

There are many new roads we see each day, each one claims they are the way,
To a life of satisfaction more than we've dreamed.
They are lined with things that please the eye, but they cannot satisfy
So I've decided to walk the highway with the redeemed.

Chorus

I'll take the old highway,

The one called straight...

It's very narrow, all the way to the gate.

It started at Calvary that's where I got on...

It's an old old highway paved with grace all the way home.

VS2

This highway may look to worldly men like it's a road to a bitter end

For we are promised tribulation all along.

But the difference is easy to explain for we have everything to gain,

So just count me with that number going home.
