VS1

In the mess of this old world..

Sometimes I just need a word

From Heaven that everything's ok...

I try to walk by faith

But sometimes I'm so afraid..

And I cannot see how God can make a way..

But then I think

CH1

He's never failed me, never left me.

Not one time have I cried out

And my voice He has not heard..

Never failed me.

He won't start today.

He will make a way...

He's never failed me

VS2

As broken as you feel...

Your troubles they are real

And I know you feel that God's forsaken you...

But child don't lose your faith,

He is working while you wait...

Just hold on, He will bring you through...

CH2

He's never failed me, never left me.

Not one time have I cried out
And my voice He has not heard..
Never failed me.
He won't start today.
He will make a way...

Bridge

He's never failed me.
He's been faithful, so faithful...
So I choose to trust Him now.
He will make a way somehow
So just believe and you will say...

CH3

He's never failed me, never left me.
Not one time have I cried out
And my voice He has not heard..
Never failed me.
He won't start today.
He will make a way...
He's never failed me
