VS1

He's the hand that holds me steady

When the storm blows in to stay

The solid rock I run to

When all else gives way

He's the shoulder I lean on

When my hope has died

The arms I fall into

Each time that I cry

CH1

I don't know what trusting Him will look like

What He might ask for my life

I only know how far His love goes

I don't know what the future holds for me

Where this lonely road will lead

I only know I've never walked alone

When life just doesn't make since

I know who Jesus is...

VS2

He's the only one with power

To wash away my sins

Who offers me forgiveness

Again and again

He picks up the pieces

When life falls apart

He is the redeemer

Of my shattered heart

CH2

I don't know what trusting Him will look like
What He might ask for my life
I only know how far His love goes
I don't know what the future holds for me
Where this lonely road will lead
I only know I've never walked alone
When life just doesn't make since
I know who Jesus Is...

CH3

I don't know what trusting Him will look like
What He might ask for my life
I only know how far His love goes
I don't know what the future holds for me
Where this lonely road will lead
I only know I've never walked alone
When life just doesn't make since
I know who Jesus Is...
